

Meet JEREMY STRONG and CARTOON KID

King of comedy, master of mirth, guardian of gags, emperor of entertainment.
Call him what you like – Jeremy Strong is the funniest children’s writer around.

Meet JEREMY STRONG

Jeremy has enjoyed writing stories since he was eight years old, but he worked as a teacher, caretaker, strawberry picker and jam doughnut stuffer (honestly) before he started to publish books. He has since written dozens of stories, won awards and seen his books turned into TV programmes. He gets his ideas from all over the place, though he thinks that falling on his head when he was three has been a particular help to him. Perhaps for that same reason, his favourite hobby is sleeping.

About CARTOON KID

When Casper and his friends start a new class, their teacher has a special surprise – they are all SUPERHEROES! Casper and Pete test out their powers and fight back against the school bullies, the Vampire Twins and Masher McNee. Can Cartoon Kid and Big Feet Pete rescue Cuggles the fluffy rabbit from Masher and his cronies before it’s too late? Each book contains 3 stories and is a fantastic mixture of cartoon strips, jokes and easy-to-read text.
